About the song

Some love stories don't just break your heart, they starve it. You Like Me Skinny is a fever dream on the dancefloor, where heavy beats and melancholic melodies crash headfirst into the ugly truth about self-worth and rejection. It's intoxicating, relentless, and just unhinged enough to feel a little too real.

Bringing back the golden era of recession pop, You Like Me Skinny thrives on a four-on-the-floor 128 BPM beat, layered with thumping bass, metallic vocal textures, and eerie, shimmering synths. Julian Guba's vocal performance twists and turns through whispered desperation, robotic detachment, and full-throttle emotional release, embodying the spiral of insecurity at the song's core. Lyrically, it wanders between seduction and self-destruction, capturing the brutal irony of changing yourself for someone who was never going to stay.

It's glamorous, chaotic, and painfully relatable, a song you can lose yourself to, whether it's under neon lights or alone in your thoughts. Like an intrusive thought, You Like Me Skinny refuses to let you go.
